

Council on Aging Minutes January 15, 2025

Roll Call:

Present: Peggy Montlouis, Keri Sullivan, Joan Smith

arrived after a function: Kathy Yahaoui and John MacPhelemy

Absent: Jane Hendrickson, Patrician Zamor, Mina Porter – all excused absences

As so many were absent, we could not carry on business as scheduled.

As the President was aware in advance of the number of expected absences, she asked Cheryl Sass to reschedule our swearing in ceremony until our February 19th meeting.

Keri did give an update on a number of upcoming events such as the Parkinson workshop on 1/15, the RPD mini-academy on 1/21, the fraud protection workshop in both English and Haitian. There was a mix up today, Bay State thought they were not supposed to come until next week. This was very disappointing for people who were waiting for the class.

The first event of the new Friends of the Randolph Seniors is going to take place on March 14th, Pi Day. They are having a pie day where participants will get to taste a couple of small slices of pie and socialize. The cost will be either $2-3.

It was suggested that we add Public Announcements to our agenda.

The meeting came to a close with a birthday cake for Cathy Yahaoui brought in by some fellow seniors. It was a good time to casually discuss both the Friends upcoming event, and the need for participants on both the Council on Aging and the Friends.

Respectfully submitted,

Joan Smith, President
