Stetson Hall
Randolph, Massachusetts was accepted on December 7, 2011 for inclusion in the National Register of Historic Places

The National Register is the nation’s official list of buildings, districts, sites, structures, and objects that retain their historical character and are important to our local, state, or national history. The National Register was established under the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 and is administered in the Commonwealth by the Massachusetts Historical Commission.
